WHERE?

The Mercator-IPC Fellowship Program is designed for research scholars to conduct in-depth research and to expand their knowledge and professional skills.

MERCATOR-IPC
FELLOWSHIP PROGRAM

WHY?

The program aims to strengthen the relationship between Europe and the Americas, and to promote cooperation and understanding between scientists, researchers, and cultural institutions.

FURTHER INFORMATION

For more information, please visit our website or contact us directly.

IPC
International Relations Commission

E-mail: intercambio@mercator-ipc.org
Website: mercator-ipc.org

EU/TURKISH RELATIONS

Governs all of the macroeconomic, trade, and political relations between the EU and Turkey.

EU/TURKISH relations are governed by a series of treaties, including the Treaty of Association, which provides for closer economic and political ties between the EU and Turkey.

Subtopics in this area:
- European security and defence cooperation and its implications for Turkey's security.
- Economic cooperation between the EU and Turkey, including trade, investment, and financial cooperation.

CLIMATE CHANGE

The reduction of greenhouse gas emissions can only be accomplished through joint efforts at national and international levels, including the participation of all countries, large and small.

Subtopics in this area:
- Analysis of the social and economic impacts of climate change mitigation and adaptation processes.
- Mechanisms for effective coordination of climate change action and adaptation policies.
- Challenges in developing countries and the role of the European Union in supporting them.
- The role of the European Union in the development of international climate change mitigation policies.

WHO?

The Mercator Fellowship is committed to the promotion of intellectual and cultural exchanges between the EU and Turkey. It provides a platform for the exchange of ideas, knowledge, and experiences between EU and Turkish experts, policymakers, and civil society representatives.

ABOUT MERCATOR

The Mercator Fellowship is a Brussels-based independent research institute. It aims to strengthen the dialogue between the EU and Turkey on key issues such as political, economic, and cultural affairs.

ANDRE PFEIFFER

A former independent research institute, the Mercator Fellowship is dedicated to fostering academic research and its application to policy making.